DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

This office action is in response to amendment filed on 4/9/2007. Of the previously presented claims 1,2, 4-7, 9, and 10, claims 1, 4-6, 9, and 12 have been amended and claims 2, 7, and 10 have been cancelled.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

1. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claim 9 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. The preamble of the claim reads "A program executable by a computer..." and is not proper under 35 U.S.C. 101. The Examiner suggests "computer readable medium" encoded with _____

- a) a computer program
- b) software
- c) computer executable instructions
- d) instructions capable of being executed by a computer

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claim 5 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 5 recites "A channel allocating method characterized in that..." however; there are no distinct steps to the method recited in the claim. Alternatively, the claim is written in a narrative form and if amended to overcome this rejection, needs to be distinct from claim 6.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 1, 4-6, 9 and 12 are allowed.
